The Neiman's Sports Group , Pride of the Diamond Division in association with Southern Lehigh Little League is proud to offer a Coaches Clinic at DeSales University on Sunday, March 15th.

The Pride of the Diamond Coaching Clinic is designed to assist youth coaches in teaching the proper fundamentals of the game that are essential in the development of young players. The coaching clinics will provide useful and practical information that can be applied to your team's practice or on an individual basis with a young boy or girl.

The Pride of the Diamond Coaching Clinic will include drills to help correct the faults of a young player and instruct them on the proper techniques to develop their skills. You will be able to implement the drills and ideas demonstrated during the session in your practice for optimum team and individual results.
